New Service Tax Action in Venice Following Ruling

An ordinance establishing a new Municipal Service Occupation Tax to replace the state service tax amendment held unconstitutional recently by the Illinois Supreme Court was adopted by the Venice City Council in a regular meeting Friday night.

The ordinance extends a tax of three-quarters of 1% as much as that in the state legislation, but applies the tax "upon all persons engaged in the business of making sales of service."

The tax is imposed upon "the cost of all tangible personal property transferred by said servicemen either in the form of tangible personal property or in the form of real estate as an incident to a sale of service."

The ordinance differs from the state version in that it applies to all services. The state legislation was held unconstitutional primarily because the increase from 1/8% to 3/4% applied specifically to different categories of business, which the Supreme Court held was discriminatory.

Repeat Previous Ordinance

One section of the bill adopted by the Venice council also repeals an ordinance passed last July 21 which levied a service occupational tax under the state law.

City Attorney Harry E. Hartman said the new ordinance is passed under the state's original service occupation tax law. Tax payments still will be returned to the Illinois Department of Revenue, which will distribute the money to the municipality.

Henry McMullen, manager of McKinley Building, reported to the council that bridge traffic vehicles per day, still about 4000 per day less than used to be, are opening up the Poplar Street Bridge at East St. Louis.

John King said that March traffic showed 72,375 vehicles crossing the bridge during the first week; 68,569 during the second week; 73,372 during the third week; 74,223 during the fourth week; and 26,171 during the last three.

Chouteau Island Landfill Closed Again Friday

The Chouteau Island landfill, which resumed operations for a week, was closed Friday upon re-issuance of a closing order by Jack Clifford, Madison county sanitation officer. The original closing order had been issued by the state.

Clifford said at his Edwardsville office that he gave the order on Thursday and was not in Friday that the dump had been closed.

Samuel B. Murphy, St. Louis lawyer who owns the Chouteau Island landfill Corp., has indicated he plans to appeal the order. Clifford said the dump is to remain closed in the interim.

The State Department of Health ordered the closing until it is shown there is compliance with state regulations. It was pointed out that a section of the finished area in the landfill is not covered and required two-foot cover and that in the action area there is not full compliance with the six-inch cover requirement, the county official said.

Murphy closed the operation in February in the face of complaints by area residents and because of pressure from the state, the temporary closing of the old Chouteau Island landfill and competition.

During the week's operation, the operator said he did not do the work of business he had previously and that the dumping was on a cash basis rather than under a contract. The joining of Mal landfills, which meets state and county standards, accommodates about 100 truckloads of refuse daily compared to 10 to 12 at the Chouteau Island landfill.

After-Care Plan on Trial For Madison-Venice Area

The Madison and Venice area has been selected for a pilot after-care program and day care center for discharged patients of the Alton State Hospital and patients attending mental health clinics, according to announcement of Dr. Don Tatro, chief of the Madison county unit of the hospital.

The therapeutic programs which include activities, counseling and group therapy, was initiated Thursday in the recreation center of Lee Wright Homes at Venice, Dr. Tatro said.

Activation of the program followed a detailed statistical study by a multi-discipline team whose job, in addition to regular hospital activities, was to assess resources or lack of them in community areas.

The team was formed when the hospital staff became concerned with community factors and factors that were fostering need for psychiatric hospitalization and the failure of the community to support the discharged patient after his hospitalization.

Re-Evaluate Care Needs
Dr. Hilda DeFries, R.N., supervisor, said that as a result of the team study, re-evaluation was made of the need for more concentrated efforts for housing, employment and after-care programs.

She said that due to lack of employment skills and educational typical of hospital patients, job replacement as well as better coordination with employment agencies, has reached a critical point. It became apparent, she said, that neighborhood after-care programs in addition to those services provided by mental health clinics were needed.

In overcoming a definite lack of knowledge in the area of community resources the team, through the coordination of several social agencies, was gradually able to bridge the gap and received a better understanding of the county it serves, Dr. Tatro said.

SIU Teacher Workshop On Human Relations

Demands for new levels of understanding created by rapid changes in the pattern of social relationships have resulted in establishment of a summer Human Relations Workshop on the Southern Illinois University Carbondale campus.

Although the workshop, designed for high school teachers, will be held June 17-28, Director Richard M. Thomas of the SIU Community Development Institute said the first day to register is April 11.

Thomas said that in order to insure admission, the student must want to start registration proceedings in advance. Consent of the instructor and university enrollment are required.

Inquiries should be addressed to Dr. Thomas at 511 South Graham, Carbondale. The course is designed for secondary school teachers.

Goal of the course, Thomas said, is to present some of the more relevant areas of this knowledge in a form which will be of immediate and practical use to teachers and administrators. The course is designed to develop an understanding of the scope of racial tensions and conflicts as these affect the educator's role in the school and community.

The course, listed as Secondary Education 591, offers four credit hours. It is sponsored by the SIU College of Education and the Illinois Commission on Human Relations.

One Fined, Hearing Set In Venice Shooting

Lloyd Hemmingsway, 26, of 213 West Second street, West Madison, was assessed a total of $140 in fines and costs by Magistrate Matossian Thursday afternoon when he was arraigned on Venice police charges of peace disturbance and unlawful use of a weapon.

At the same time, Matossian set April 15 as the date of a preliminary hearing for James Major Jr., 26, of 104 Terry street, Eagle Park Acres, who was arrested with Hemmingsway following a shooting spree on Weaver street in Venice Wednesday afternoon.

Major is charged with aggravated assault and possession of instruments for use of narcotics.

Police said Hemmingsway was unable to pay the fine of $25 and $50 costs for peace disturbance and $100 and $10 costs on the weapon charge, and was committed to the Madison county jail for 28 days.

Police arrested the two men and confiscated a pistol and a shotgun that were used in the shooting, in which no one was wounded. Police officers had chased the men on foot for several blocks after capturing them in the 700 block of Webster street.

Mittimus was issued for Major's retention in the county jail until the hearing April 15.

Each candidate will be allowed up to ten minutes for his opening statement and another three-minute period to conclude his remarks after all candidates have presented their opening statements.

Purpose of the meeting is to enable voters to "get a first-hand view and hear personally the opinions of the school board candidates."

The candidates traditionally appear at PTA unit meetings but due to lack of time their remarks at such gatherings usually are brief.

With a single meeting devoted solely to them and open to residents of all parts of the school district, it is hoped to achieve a more detailed presentation of the candidates' proposals.

He pointed out that the bridge administration paid the $110,000 in interest on bonds April 1 by shifting the April bridge budget into the month of May. This permitted the city to avoid the April payment of interest. This was approximately the amount needed to make up the $110,000 payment.

Plan Traffic Study

Dr. John E. Lee, mayor, pointed out that an engineering study of the city's traffic situation will be conducted during the next several months, followed by further conferences of finance officials to determine what might be done to meet the next $110,000 interest bill that will be due on Sept. 30.

Chief of Police John Essington reported his department made 46 arrests during February. From cases that went to court, the city received fines and fees totaling $282 from the circuit court, Essington reported.

The report said 13 arrests were made for traffic violations and 15 persons were arrested on charges filed under city ordinances. Three were arrested in investigations and released without charges. Four prisoners were released to the Granite City police department and two were released to their parents.

Receive Tax Settlement

City Treasurer Bernard Anderson reported the city received a final tax settlement of 1966 taxes amounting to $78,329 during March, and also received $10,677 from overruled tax objections of prior years.

In addition, $50,000 was transferred from the McKinley fund to the general fund.

Other March revenue included $88 in road and bridge taxes from Venice township, $75 in miscellaneous receipts, $15 in truck licenses and $12 for building permits, bringing to $130,169 the city's total March revenue.

With a balance of $7405 at the beginning of the month, total available funds amounted to $137,573.

Disbursements totaled $43,467, including tax settlements of $3037 for the library fund, $7147 in the police pension fund, $1927 in the working cash fund and $2204 for the municipal retirement fund.

Farm Bureau Offers Rewards Against Crime

The Madison County Farm Bureau has initiated a reward program in an effort to reverse the growing crime rate in rural areas of the county. Harold L. Gindler of Collinsville, bureau president, announced today.

The Farm Bureau will bestow a cash reward of $200 to any person providing information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons guilty of committing robbery or damage to the property owned by a Farm Bureau member.

Gindler noted the increase in burglaries in the rural areas of the county which is causing increasing concern of Farm Bureau members. He feels the reward program will aid law enforcement agencies and will prove beneficial.

$15,000 Mishap Suit

Negligence was charged.

Army Depot Signs Agreement with Union

Recognition of Union Local 770, National Federation of Federal Employees, as exclusive representative of all non-supervisory positions of guard in the Security Division, Directorate for Administration at the Granite City Army Depot, was officially affirmed by Col. Charles E. Hoskin III, Depot commander, in a recent letter-signing ceremony.

The event was witnessed by union and management officials in the commander's office.

Present for the signing were Frank Collins, acting director for Administration; Mrs. Mary Jo Frank, principal, personnel officer; William Johnson, president of Union Local 770 and a Depot fire-fighter, who accepted the letter; William L. Hoover, security guard; Capt. Stephen R. Taylor, Depot provost marshal; Mrs. Venida Hill, Local 770 secretary; and C. Dorsey Zinn, civilian personnel division representative.

Recognition of Local 770 is a continuation of the program of employee-management cooperation in the federal service, initiated with the signing of historic Executive Order by President Kennedy on Jan. 20, 1962.

For the first time in the history of the Federal Government, the executive order issued by the late President established a federal-wide policy recognizing the role of unions to represent employees on matters of personnel policy, practices and working conditions.

Throughout the federal service, the union has now assumed its role with management in forming and carrying out most personnel policies, the Depot commander said.

1806 Farms Register For Wheat-Grain

Lee Rogers, office manager of the Madison County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office, Edwardsville, reported that 1806 farms have registered to participate in the 1968 wheat and feed grain programs, and operators of 840 farms have requested measurement service to assure compliance with program requirements.

Requests for the measurement service may be made before or after planting and diverted acreage will be staked by trained men.

Rogers said some farmers request the service on participating farms, but they neglect other non-participating farms in which they have an interest, and that in many cases these farms interfere with the payments or benefits on the farm or farms that are in the program.

He reminded farmers that certifying program acres is not a guessing game, and that severe penalties are provided against those filing incorrect reports.

Local Area Spellers Will Compete in 2-State Meets

Seven public and parochial schools from the Quad-Cities will be represented this year in a two-state metropolitan area spelling contest which starts Saturday and continues for three additional Saturdays in the Assembly Room at Kiel Auditorium, St. Louis.

Approximately 300 schools have registered contestants for the regional meet, including McKinley elementary school, St. Elizabeth, St. Joseph and Sacred Heart parochial schools, Granite City, and Dunbar grade school, Madison junior high and St. Mary's parochial school, in Madison.

Contestants will compete in quarter-final matches on April 13 and April 20 and in a semi-final contest on April 27. Semi-final winners will advance to the regional finals, also to be held at Kiel Auditorium, on May 5, with the regional winner then eligible to compete in June in the "National Spelling Contest" at Washington, D. C.

Selection of students to represent their specific school has taken place within the past two weeks, during preliminary contests staged in the individual school buildings. Boys and girls who are fourth through eighth grade students, or who have not yet reached 16 years, are eligible to participate.

Youngest contestant from the Quad-Cities, it appears, is Bonnie Lou Simmon, ten, who will represent McKinley school. A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simmon, 2009 Grand avenue, the fourth grade pupil recently eliminated 11 other McKinley contestants, including fifth and sixth grade students.

Edward Gowat, McKinley principal, noted with some surprise that "cemetery" stumped most of those entered in elimination contest, with Bonnie Lou correctly spelling "cemetery" and the final word "impossible."

She will compete in the April 13 quarter finals, with Janet Davis as her alternate. In the preliminary contest at St. Mary's school, Madison, Karen Sasyk, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Sasyk, 1429 Madison avenue, Madison, was the first place winner, and will represent the school Saturday in St. Louis. She is an eighth grade student.

Turner-up was Frank Baran, also 14 and an eighth grade pupil, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baran, reside at 1212 Grand avenue, Madison.

Sixteen finalists participated in a spell-down event conducted last week for sixth, seventh and eighth grade students at Dunbar elementary school.

Capturing the top spot was Evelyn Wigfall, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wigfall, 1119 Market street, Madison, a seventh grade pupil. Joyceann Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gardner, 510 Mero-dia street, Madison, an eighth grader, took runner-up honors.

Two eighth grade girls, both of whom competed in the recently-held Knights of Columbus spelling bee finals in Granite City, were first and second place winners in the Sacred Heart school contest.

Sean Richardson, 13, daughter of Mrs. Josephine Richardson, 2912 Iowa street, was the top candidate and will compete in Saturday's quarter-finals in St. Louis.

Her alternate competitor is Barbara Little, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Little.

2738 State street. As third place winner of the local K. of C. contest, Barbara also is alternate for the Madison county Knights of Columbus spelling bee on April 28.

A local school which produced a national champion, Susan Scloss, in the early 1960s, St. Joseph parochial school will be represented by Tina Perdue, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Perdue, 2113 Grand avenue, who was chosen following preliminary competition.

An eighth grade pupil, Tina also was the fourth place winner in the local K. of C. contest. She will compete in the April 20 quarter finals in St. Louis.

Alternate candidate is Evelyn Wilson, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, 2132 State street, also an eighth grade student.

Two spelling champions who were among the 12 finalists from six Quad-City parochial schools participating in the K. of C. contest two weeks ago, repeated their winning ways during St. Elizabeth's intraschool elimination trials.

First place winner, selected to represent St. Elizabeth in the St. Louis quarter-finals Saturday, was Carol Frey, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Frey, 36 Oaklawn drive.

Runner-up and alternate was Kenneth Kish, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kish, 97 Riviera drive, who captured the same position in the K. of C. contest here and will compete April 26 in the Madison county spelling tournament. Both are eighth grade students.

In a spell-down contest conducted Thursday afternoon at Madison junior high school, Robert Mangoff, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Boris Mangoff, 1024 Grand avenue, Madison, successfully spelled "consular" to win the first place spot and to represent the school in the St. Louis tournament on Saturday. He is an eighth grade pupil.

Second place winner and alternate candidate was Ronnie Taylor, 14, seventh grader, whose parents are Rev. and Mrs. Windell Taylor, 1732 Rhodes street, Madison.

Contestants representing each class stood at the junior high school participated in the spelling bee.

HUD Official to Talk At SIU-OW Tuesday

A regional official of the Department of Housing and Urban Development will examine referendums in the next two lectures scheduled at the Southwestern campus of Southern Illinois University.

Dean Pieper, special assistant to the regional administrator of HUD's Chicago office, will talk on "Referendums—Cause and Effect" Tuesday and April 26 in the Lovejoy Library auditorium.

His comments, beginning at 7:30 p.m., each session, are expected to shed considerable light on the "inner workings and manipulations" of referendum activities. The talks are a part of the continuing HUD-SIU-OW lecture series that started last September.

A former newspaperman, Pieper has been in close contact with the past few years with referendum actions and has observed extensively those connected with housing and urban renewal.

University officials say these lectures will be especially important to students of political science and people planning government careers. Municipal officials also are urged to attend.

No Grazing on Diverted Acres Starts April 14

Farmers were reminded today that the "one grazing" period for diverted acres under the 1968 feed grain will start April 14. It will continue for the following five months until Sept. 15.

Charles C. Loach, chairman, Madison county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee, explained that farmers who are diverting acreage under the program have agreed not to graze the diverted acres during a specific five-month period of the growing season and not to harvest a crop from diverted acres at any time during the year.

Farmers participating in the conservation reserve and cropland adjustment programs have agreed not to graze land diverted under these programs or harvest any crop from such land during the life of the agreements.

A total of 967 Madison county farms signed up to participate in the 1968 commodity diversion programs for corn and grain sorghum.

Population Migration Data to be Gathered

Information to help determine national migration patterns will be sought from local households by the Bureau of the Census in its monthly Current Population Survey.

The survey, which will be conducted during the week of April 15, Director Theodore F. Olson of the Bureau's regional office in Chicago, announced today.

Questions on household movements during the past five years will provide an insight into amounts and directions of population migration within the country and will be instrumental in forecasting future migration trends.

Other highlights of the April survey include special inquiries on types of work during the previous year, and questions on family size and place of birth of household heads.

These special queries will supplement the regular monthly questions on employment and unemployment.

The monthly surveys are taken in a scientifically selected cross-section of several hundred areas throughout the United States, according to Director Olson. Survey questions are asked of more than 50,000 households in these areas. The identity of those questioned is kept completely confidential and the facts collected are used only for statistical purposes.

Three Questioned on Possession of Batteries

Three men were arrested by Venice police Thursday afternoon and later questioned by FBI agents when nine new high voltage batteries were found in the trunk of the car in which the men were riding.

Police said they talked to a man who said he had seen the men load the batteries into their car in the Terminal Railroad yards. The caller gave police a description of the car, which was spotted immediately going down Fourth street.

FBI agents released the men pending an investigation by the U. S. attorney general's office, police reported. The batteries were impounded by police.

Registration Of Girls for Soccer Begins

The YMCA Soccer Association announced today that it is now ready to accept names of girls interested in playing in newly formed leagues this spring and summer.

Girls between the ages of eight and 15 are eligible. A girl must be eight during the current year, but not turn 14 any time this year.

The girls will be charged $2 for insurance that will cover them during the season. If they want to buy shin guards, an additional $1 must be paid.

The girls will be divided into three separate leagues, for ages 8-9, 10-11 and 12-13.

The Soccer Association has not decided which rules to alter for the girls' teams, except to vary the fields that they play on.

The younger league will play on the first year field and the other two leagues on the Bantam field.

The uniforms being worn by boys now will be passed on to the girls at the end of the boys' season. The girls will play a 10-game schedule starting the week following completion of the boys' season.

Areas other than Granite City expected to enter teams include Mitchell and Collinsville.

The present plan is for those managing boys' teams to also manage in the girls' league. It can be worked out, each manager would like to have one of the mothers of each team to volunteer to serve as coach.

Anyone interested in participating as a manager or as an assistant is asked to call Ruben Mendoza, 452-7395, or to contact the YMCA.

Girls interested in signing up for a team also may contact Mendoza or the YMCA.

Wood River's Jim DeWerrf hurled a three-hitter and fanned seven. Oiler Allen Rhoades singled, Bill Schmitt walked, Dan James singled and Jim Becker hit a sacrifice fly.

Charles Frizell pitched but left in the third inning after being hit on the finger by his throwing hand while bunting the ball. He will be out two or three weeks. Steve Harris relieved.

Gary Simpson won his first mound assignment, pitching five scoreless innings before he began to tire. Totalling five hits, the Warriors scored twice in the second, once in the third, twice in the fifth and once in the sixth.

The second game against Cahokia was a no-hitter by John Latta. He struck out 11 and walked four. Don Haddix pitched for the Warriors, relieved in the fifth by Jerry Runk and in the sixth by Jack Lapiere.

The opener saw GCHS take a 2-1 lead after one inning but lose on Cahokia's four-run sixth inning. Denny Weather had walked, Rich Logan tripled and Dennis Huebner doubled in the first; Russ Borth tripled and scored on an error in the seventh.

The Warriors outthrew the Comanches 7-4 but also led them in errors, 3-1. Jim Parks started and gave way in the sixth to Jack Lapiere.

Frizell Injured

Buses to Cardinal Games from Nameoki

Twelve Red Bird Express bus lines will be operated to all Cardinal baseball home games at Busch Memorial Stadium starting with the opening game Wednesday night. Bi-State Transit System reports. All Red Bird Expresses will be air-conditioned.

The direct-to-the stadium routes include the Nameoki Village Shopping Center originating point. The buses run at five to 10-minute intervals, beginning about 90 minutes before game time. They make local stops on outer portions of the lines and then operate non-stop to the stadium.

At the end of the game, the buses are ready for boarding on the bus parking lot just south of the stadium. Lines will be designated for each line, which will be posted on a large sign at the front of the ramp between the stadium and the bus parking lot.

Fare on all 12 lines will be 40 cents or a weekly pass with 10 cents, plus applicable zone charges. All buses will carry Red Bird Express flags.

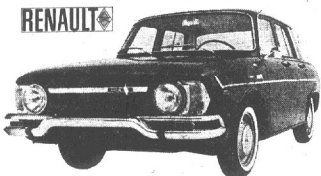

In addition to these routes, Bi-State will operate six special lines providing direct-to-the stadium service from the Missouri Athletic Club, Musial & Biggie's restaurant, Chase-Park Plaza Hotel, Ruggieri's restaurant, Lewis & Clark restaurant and motor lodge in East Alton and Bel-Air Hotel in Belleville. Also, more than 20 regular bus lines to downtown St. Louis provide service direct to or within walking distance of the stadium.

Last year Road Test Magazine chose the Renault 10 as the number one import under $2,000.

They haven't changed their minds.

Each year Road Test Magazine rates imported cars in the $2,000 price range. Eight of the top selling imports were compared this year. They were judged in 5 categories: engineering, roadability, performance, comfort and economy. When the points were added up, the Renault 10 came out on top again. Take the Renault 10 on a test drive and you'll probably end up picking the same winner.

The Trojan baseball team beat Midwestern Conference rival Roxana 5-1 Friday afternoon at the Shells' home diamond.

GC 13th in Alton Relays
GCHS tied for 13th place in Alton relays Saturday, totaling 62 points. Dave Salitch scored for the Warriors, getting first place in the discus throw with a toss of 147 feet.

East St. Louis Lincoln won the relay meet with 63 points and host Alton was second with 62. Kirkwood had 54, Beaumont 37, Webster Groves 24½, McCluer 14, Melville 13, Belleville West 13, Hazelwood 11, East St. Louis 10, Soldan and Sumner seven, Vaahon and Granite City six, Mascoutah Riverview Gardens and Ladue five, Lutheran South four, Pattonville 3½, and Centralia three.

The Tigers won by finishing second to Kirkwood in the final event, the mile relay.

Lincoln's Greg Johnson set records in the long jump and 120 yard hurdles and was the coach man for the record-setting 400-yard hurdler shuttle relay team.

Ivory Crockett, Webster Groves, ran the 100-yard dash in 9.5, believed to be the fastest time ever run by a Missouri school athlete. The old record of 9.8 had stood for 36 years.

Warrior Coach Jim Morrison said, "Our boys didn't run well at all. They realized it and have dedicated themselves to be the best ready for the Southwest Conference meet on April 19 at Alton."

IC Declines Partial Purchase of A&S RR
The Illinois Central Railroad has declined to become part owner of the Alton & Southern Railroad, the Interstate Commerce Commission has been informed.

The ICC last month approved purchase of the local switch line by the Missouri Pacific and Chicago & Northwestern railroads but deferred the order to permit the IC and Cottonbelt railroads to be included in the transaction.

IC officials in Chicago said the railroad would rely on conditions imposed by the commission to insure non-discriminatory service by the new owners. The IC considered opinions of shippers in deciding against partial purchase of the A&S.

Meanwhile, a strike by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen & Enginemen against the A&S has been averted.

The union and railroad officials reported progress at a meeting Friday, and another meeting to settle details is to be held this Friday.

The union had charged that management had violated agreements in the Penn-Central railroad was operating trains over A&S tracks with Penn-Central crews. The A&S said Penn-Central was using its tracks as a temporary detour.

Traffic Fatality Rate Up 80% Over 1967

Traffic accidents resulting in five fatalities in the Quad-Cities during March increased to nine the total number of fatalities during the first three months of this year—a boost in the traffic fatality rate of 80% over that of the same period a year ago, a study of statistics showed today.

The nine fatalities occurring in accidents during January, February and March also is the largest total for the first quarter of the year since 1963, when nine fatalities also occurred in the first three months.

At the same time the ratio of the number of accidents occurring during the three months in the Quad-Cities, along with the number of injury cases resulting from those accidents, also increased substantially over the same period of 1967. The total of five fatalities, however, was an increase of three above the two fatalities in March a year ago.

176 Mishaps Reported
A total of 176 accidents was reported in the area last month, compared with 177 in March of 1967. Injury cases totaled 81 last month, compared to 90 in March 1967.

The total of five fatalities, however, was an increase of three above the two fatalities in March a year ago.

Last month's statistics, added to those of January and February, however, increased to 538 the total number of accidents so far this year and to 310 the total number of traffic injuries during the first quarter.

This is an increase of 22% in the accident ratio for the quarter, although the number of accidents during the first quarter of 1967 was 310 over the same period of last year when a total of 490 accidents had been reported for the first quarter of 1967.

The number of 310 injuries so far this year is an increase of 31% over the ratio for the same period in 1967 when a total of 236 injuries had been reported.

While the March accident and injury rates were nearly the same as those of 1967, substantially increases were shown for the two previous months.

Accidents Total Jump
In January this year a total of 233 accidents was reported, compared to 170 accidents reported in January of the previous year. January injury cases totaled 131, compared to 69 for the same month in 1967. February's statistics showed 169 accidents compared to 143 for February in 1967, and there were 38 February injury cases compared with 57 in February a year ago.

Area Aid Planned For CEEF Program
Exploratory discussions are under way in this area to find ways of supporting the Southern Illinois University's desire to continue sponsoring programs of the Clergy Economic Education Foundation.

A planning conference was held at the office of the Manufacturers' Association of the Tri-Cities at 1251 Niedringhaus avenue following a luncheon given last week by William F. Hoelscher, the association's general manager.

Hoelscher, who earlier was asked to head a steering committee to work with SIU-SW campus, invited several business, industrial labor and agricultural representatives to the conference. He said most of the community parties have indicated an interest in helping with the project.

SIU-SW and CEEF co-sponsored the first program last August at Pere Marquette Lodge at Grafton, which more than 30 clergymen of all faiths endorsed. CEEF, which was formed nationally in 1957, is dedicated to interpreting economics to ministers, since they are approached frequently for advice on money matters.

The steering committee, headed by Hoelscher, another program for 1968. SIU-SW's Center for Business Services is coordinating the University effort.

MORE ABOUT Memorial Services

Memorial march and service in Venice.

The day had been designated by Rev. Carl L. Johnson, pastor of the alain Negro leader by President Lyndon B. Johnson. Six Venice residents plan to leave this evening by chartered bus for Atlanta, Ga., where funeral services for Dr. King will be conducted tomorrow.

Civic officials from the three local communities, together with representatives of various organizations and many clergymen from the Tri-Cities Ministerial Association, led the marchers who assembled at the Bethel A.M.E. Church, Market and Merodica streets, Venice.

The marchers proceeded solemnly, without incident, via Market, Klein and Broadway to the Venice grade school, where memorial services were held in the auditorium.

Brief eulogies were offered by Rev. Carl L. Johnson, pastor of Peace United Evangelical Lutheran Church of Granite City and president of the Ministerial Association; Venice Mayor Dr. John E. Lee; Eugene R. Burnett, Granite City police commissioner, who represented Mayor Donald Partney; Madison City Atty. Nick D. Vassilef, speaking for Mayor Stephen Moers; Sister Mary Thomas, St. Elizabeth Hospital administrator, and Rev. Howard A. St. Louis attorney.

In addition to Rev. Johnson, several other Quad-City ministers spoke briefly.

The principal talk was given by Miss Fannie Jones, a school teacher for the past 22 years, who was scheduled to address a NAACP fund-raising tea yesterday at the Venice school.

The event was cancelled due to Dr. King's death. Hugh R. Hairston of Venice, who was among those organizing Sunday's memorial march, said, "the occasion was dignified and truly fitting in remembrance of a great man."

Hairston, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Harper, Mrs. Charles Griggs, and Mrs. Wade James are among those planning to attend the funeral tomorrow.

Chief Circuit Judge James O. Monroe Jr. said, "It is appropriate this morning that those of us responsible for law and order in this area express our sorrow and sympathy and shame at last night's acts of violence, disorder and irresponsibility."

"Let it be thought inappropriate, we may note that now within five years we have shot down in violence two of our most articulate spokesmen of non-violence."

"If we heed Senator Church, violence is our 'national curse.' If we heed a soldier in Vietnam, 'There are a lot of nuts in America' and anything can happen."

"Some have inferred it is a

Moose Lodge Elects Morris As Governor

Malford Morris, 2505 Hodges avenue, was named governor-elect of Granite City 272, Local 1806, of the Moose Lodge.

Morris, who is employed as a crane operator at Laclede Steel Co., and also serves as treasurer of Local 1785, United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO, will succeed in office, George Lipscomb, the current governor.

Those elected to serve with the new executive officer in 1968-69 include William "Bull" DuVal, junior governor; Otto Knipping, prelate; Paul Tilson, treasurer; and Archie Pulley, three-year trustee.

Installation ceremonies for new lodge officials will take place at 4 p.m. Sunday, April 28, at the Moose Hall, Milton E. Worthen Jr., a past governor of the local lodge, will preside as installing officer.

Members of Women of the Moose, Chapter 247, plan to assist at the installation ceremony which will be witnessed by ready to late for American society . . . But most of us would say it is never too late for sanity and order in America—and that it is most appropriate to say so.

"We have no illusions about what we here today might say or do. We cannot atone for last night. We cannot cure the scars of 1968 to 1969. We cannot rewrite the law of 1886 to 1964."

"We cannot here solve the problems of poverty and plenty, the problems of bigotry, bias and bitterness, nor cultivate the heart and mind to solve them, if they are ever to be solved. But faith requires some expression, and the act may justify the faith."

"So we meet, if for nothing else, to show that we are aware and concerned. If we do no more than think, it may help."

"There are no magic formulas for getting along. But let us hope at least that Negroes act in anger, or reprisal or bitterness. Let us hope that white people act not in arrogance or fear of fear. And let each of us contemplate his own conscience."

Venice Council Prayer

Members of the Venice city council Friday night paid their respects to the late Dr. King with a moment of silent prayer just before adjournment of the meeting.

Mayor John E. Lee told the council.

"Whether you agreed or disagreed with Dr. King's principles, he was doing what, in his mind, was right . . . and his murder shouldn't happen anywhere in this world that is supposed to be civilized."

SIU-SW Memorial Services Southern Illinois University paused on all campuses for one hour this morning for memorial services for Dr. King. Services at the Southwestern campus and the Alton and East St. Louis centers began at 10:30 a.m. in the auditorium at each location. Another service was held at the Mangrove Development Training Center in East St. Louis.

Carbondale campus services were held in the arena, and a service took place at the same time at the Vocational-Technical Institute near Carbondale.

President Delyte W. Morris announced Friday that classes would be dismissed during the memorial services and that all university offices would be closed for the hour. Students and faculty joined in presenting the memorial services, each of which was open to the public.

The SIU-SW service was in the Communications Building theater, with closed circuit television links to classrooms in the Peck Building, Lovejoy Library auditorium and the library lobby to accommodate the crowd.

William Clover, SIU-SW student president, read a telegram of condolence which he sent to Mrs. Martin King Jr. on behalf of the student body Thursday night.

Additional tributes were by Rev. Russell Wigfield, campus minister; Wilbur Barbee, president of the Negro Student Association; and Professor Patrick Riddelberger, speaking for the faculty and staff.

"Precious Lord," the song King had requested be sung moments before his assassination Thursday, was sung by the SIU Concert Chorus, directed by Leonard Van Camp, with Rosemary Smith as soloist. Other music included the spiritual,

Levee Dist. to Get $50,000 in Protested Taxes

The East Side Levee and Sanitary district will receive $50,329 in taxes this year tied up in tax objection cases in St. Clair county for the 1958, 1959 and 1960 tax years, Board Atty. John Sprague of Belleville reported last week.

Sprague said the cases were determined by court order after recent tax objection hearings and that the levee district will receive $15,547 for the 1958 year, $8870 for 1959 and $27,942 for 1960. Hearings also have been set on cases of subsequent years and that some further refunds can be expected. Tax money involved in objection cases is held in escrow by the county treasurer until the cases are settled.

Sprague said that some cases also are pending in the Madison county courts and that arrangements will be made for disposing of these cases soon.

An A-line silhouette, her gown featured an Empire waistline which was emphasized with a taffeta cording in the front and a chiffon bow in the back. ## Illinois in 1818-Southern Part Of the State Was Settled First

(From the files of the Granite-City Press-Record)

In 1818, the year it became a state, practically the only settled portion of Illinois was south of a line drawn through the present counties of Greene, Macoupin, Montgomery, Shelby, Cumberland and Clark.

In this territory there were two settled areas. The larger of these was in the west and consisted of the triangle bounded by the Mississippi and Kaskaskia rivers, Shoaik creek and the frontier lines of survey.

Professor Solon Justus Buck said in the "Centennial History of Illinois in 1818" that "in this region of less than 7,000 square miles dwelt about 15,000 people, more than a third of the population of the state, and the average density was not far from eight to the square mile."

The other settled district lay along the Wabash River on the eastern side of the state, extending from York, in southwestern Clark county to Saline creek, and having an average width of about 15 miles.

Nearly another half of the population, approximately 12,000, dwelt in this region of 1500 square miles, thus giving it a density similar to but slightly sparser than that of the settled area in the west.

Between these two districts and north of the one on the Mississippi lived the remaining third of the population in an immense area of at least 7,000 square miles. Density of the population in this region averaged less than two to the square mile.

All of central and northern Illinois was vast prairie land, practically uninhabited except for Indians and a few frontiersmen.

In the northern part of the state were the Sauk, Fox, Winnebago, Potawatomi, Ottawa, and Chippewa tribes. In central Illinois dwelt the Kickapoo.

Medical, Other Income Tax Queries

(Internal Revenue Service)

Q—My buddy says you can deduct all your medical insurance premiums this year and say only half of them can be deducted. Who's right?

A—In a way, you both are. Premiums paid for medical insurance have always been deductible as a medical expense by taxpayers who itemize their deductions.

For 1967, however, half of these premiums up to $150 may be deductible without regard to the requirement that medical expenses be reduced by 3% of the taxpayer's income.

In effect, the new rule on medical insurance premiums allows a deduction for part of these premiums even when the taxpayer's other medical expenses don't exceed 3% of his income.

Any excess premiums are included with other medical expenses. The 1968 instructions explain this in detail.

Q—I'm expecting a refund but I don't have one of the envelopes you're supposed to use to mail the return. What should I do?

A—Mail your return to the Internal Revenue Service Center for your area. You can obtain the exact address by checking page 9 of the instructions or by calling the local Internal Revenue office.

Q—Are membership fees in a charitable organization like the YMCA deductible as a contribution?

A—No, dues, membership fees and assessments paid to a charitable organization are not deductible if you receive benefits and privileges in return. However, you may deduct any gift you make to a qualified organization.

Q—I've been supporting my mother since she retired last fall. Can I claim her as a dependent?

A—If your mother had gross income of $600 or more last year, you cannot claim her as a dependent. Check the 1040 instructions for details on the dependency tests.

Q—My losses from stock transactions were greater than my gains last year. Can I carry over any of my unused capital losses from 1967 to offset capital losses in 1968?

A—Yes. Unused capital losses may be carried over from year to year until they are used up.

Q—That's all I read where a retired person is entitled to a credit against his tax. Is that right?

A—There is a provision in the law which permits retired persons to reduce their income tax by up to 15% of their "retirement income." This provision is explained on Schedule B, Form 1040. Copies are available at many banks, post offices and local IRS offices.

Q—I had to hire someone last year to take care of the children while my wife was recovering from an operation. Can I deduct what I paid her?

A—You may be able to take a child-care deduction for the wages you paid to someone who takes care of your child while you are working. This deduction is limited to $1,000 per year for each child. The 1968 instructions explain this provision in detail.

Q—My bank sent me a statement on the interest I earned last year on my savings account. Should I send this in with my return?

A—No, interest or dividend statements do not have to be filed with your tax return.

Q—I got married last year. Do I need another Social Security number since my name changed?

A—No, continue to use your same number but notify the Social Security Administration that your name has changed so they can bring their records up to date.

Q—Don't forget to put your number accurately on your tax return file. Failure to do so delays refunds for many taxpayers each year.

Q—I have a federal tax I pay on my monthly phone bill deductible?

A—No, federal excise taxes are not deductible.

Diversify Stock Investments

By THOMAS E. O'HARA
Chairman, National Association of Investment Clubs

Q. I started buying stocks about two years ago under the Monthly Investment Plan, investing $40 every three months. Whenever I can, which is not often, I put in a bit more than that minimum.

I have nearly 11 shares of American Telephone & Telegraph. How many shares of this stock, or any other, should I acquire before switching to a new one?

A. When you accumulate about $1000 worth of a stock you might switch to another until you have holdings in eight to ten different companies. This will give you good diversification. Costs experience with various types of companies.

You might study the Model Portfolio in the enclosed copy of "Better Investing" for ideas of the kind of stocks to build your holdings on.

Q. Please recommend some investment primers for me, a financial ignoramus. In nine years I shall retire with a pension, which I should supplement with income from investments during the next few years. I can invest about $200 a month.

A. First, ask a broker for "The Language of Investing" and "How to Understand Financial Statements." These are printed by the New York Stock Exchange and the broker probably has them on hand. They are free.

As for books, I suggest "Guide to Successful Investing" by Roger Speers, "How to Buy Stocks" by Louis Engels, and "An Introduction to the Financial Statements of American Companies" by Robert W. Greenleaf.

Then you might branch out to a text or two on investment and security analysis.

If, by this time, you have developed a real interest in the subject, read "Security Analysis" by Graham, Dodd and Wicks. It is difficult, but it's thorough.

I would suggest that you join an investment club, where you can get some actual practice in investing with small amounts. These are easy to set up with friends and/or co-workers. You can get material on how to do it from the National Association of Investment Clubs if you are interested.

To invest your $200 a month, you might pick a good company, a strong public utility and a couple of growth-type manufacturing companies, and set up a Monthly Investment Plan with your broker. Invest $40 a month in each of them and the balance in your investment club.

Victory for House Ethics Committee and the public

House adoption by a 405-to-1 vote of its first code of ethics reflects great credit on the special standards committee and its chairman, Cong. Melvin Price.

All representatives and the chief employees of the House will be required to publicly disclose their principal sources of income. Gifts from persons interested in legislation are banned, and campaign funds no longer can be diverted to personal use.

It would be easy enough to say that the code should have gone farther, but the importance of achieving an initial "foot in the door" must not be underestimated. The difficulty of obtaining agreement on any law at all is shown by the fact that the recently adopted Senate code is much weaker.

That the House was willing to go beyond the other branch of Congress testifies to Price's skill and leadership, and to fellow representatives' confidence in him; his committee is likely to be named as the permanent group to enforce the code, issue advisory opinions as guidelines, investigate alleged abuses and recommend censure or other punitive action.

It is said that a man is getting old when he does not care where his wife goes, just as long as he doesn't have to go along.

1968 Continuing to Be a Topsy Turvey Year

The sky is orange, and the moon really is made of cheese, judging by some of the news developments of 1968. One candidate after another is allowing himself to be "defeated" by pollsters before a ballot is marked. The stock market, usually stimulated by wars, is now depressed by peace and soaring by peace and prospects. And Hubert Humphrey, once considered one of the most extreme liberals, is gaining presidential support from southern Democrats and the most conservative of the three potential nominees of their party.

BY MADISON CANDIDATE

To the Editor: It is very reassuring to see that the Madison candidates have a really qualified candidate running for election in the coming school election.

Many hard working people frustrated by the problems of the day find it easy to fall for these preachers.

If extremely conservative people get into office, the first people to be victimized will be the wage earners. Labor must by all means step up political action in support of liberal, pro-labor candidates.

If labor fails to vote for these causes, workers and their families will have to suffer and live in industrial slavery just like we did in Hoover's days.

BACK KERNER TO HEAD DELEGATION TOGETHER

In an editorial in the Press-Record April 1, you say, "The new Democratic leadership appears to have had the rug pulled from beneath them" by the nomination of President Johnson as a candidate for his party's nomination for president.

I do not doubt that President Johnson was the favorite not only of most of our party's

LABOR URGED TO 'GET OUT THE VOTE' IN 1968

To the Editor: The present political action. The warning bell better be sounded. Labor had better do a good job on political action in 1968 or else bargaining will be very tough after the November election—and anti-labor legislation can be expected next year.

The present Congress does little for the working people and just barely holds the line against the anti-labor forces.

Labor of just a few seats in Congress this year can bring big trouble next year. We must elect a liberal Congress if we are to protect our people at the polls.

It can be said this confusion comes from mostly right-wing extremists who are busy plant-

Advance Toward a Land of Justice Will Not End With Dr. King's Death

Assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. struck the Quad-Cities and nation with an impact greater than any tragedy since the slaying of President Kennedy in November 1963.

"The 16th century sonnet by John Donne included the phrase 'no man is an island' and 'for whom the bell tolls' says, 'Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind.' The harsh reminder in Memphis, Tenn., April 4 of the insecurity and cruelty of life diminishes everyone; if even those who have reached the heights are vulnerable, what fate awaits each of us?"

Only God has the answer. But it is within the power of every citizen to help advance the principles of justice and brotherhood espoused by the late pastor, whose campaign for equality of opportunity has made giant forward strides during the 12 years he gave national leadership to the cause.

One of the most moving speakers we have had the opportunity to hear, he had the ability to deal a theme and return to it with growing effectiveness throughout a sermon or talk.

His eloquence has been stilled, but not his dream that all men live today in peace and brotherhood. His life-making the bright promise that America and its concept of freedom have brought to the world.

Delay In Complying With Illinois Fluoridation Law Not Justifiable

With an estimated 629 of the 1489 Illinois water suppliers missing an April 1 deadline to submit fluoridation plans to the Bureau of Public Water Supply, it is important that the state make clear that it intends to enforce the fluoridation law enacted by the General Assembly last year.

Delay could play into the hands of fluoridation foes, who are still working to delay the law. One of the "anti" groups, the Illinois Pure Water Committee, is based in Alton and has had some success, persuading the Alton city government to complain to the Illinois Public Health Department regarding "inadequate answers" by the state to questions about public health and safety, testing procedures, costs and qualifications of personnel.

Fluoridation of the water supply, which avoids two-thirds of future tooth decay, is a proven and needed program. It was the overwhelming legislative approval in Illinois in 1967. Its start is mandatory by July 1.

It is anticipated that the Quad-Cities will receive fluoridated water on schedule. Because the need is equally great elsewhere in Illinois, there must be no relaxation at the administrative or enforcement levels in carrying out the clear mandate of this law.

ARTICLES STIMULATE ACHIEVEMENT BY YOUTHS

To the Editor: I think a thank you is long overdue for the Granite City Press-Record staff and especially your Youth Editor, Mr. Bartoski, for all the untiring efforts you put forth to acquaint our community with all the good things we teenagers do.

It is very stimulating for all of us to see our good achievements in print.

It inspires us all to push harder and prove to our parents and community that we aren't a lost generation.

We all fully realize that with-out such a service as Youth Focus this would be a near impossibility. If all things were left to word of mouth and communication, I am afraid we would be in a sad state of affairs.

I want to personally thank you for myself and the organizations I am affiliated with, and I feel reasonably sure these are the sentiments of the majority of the rest of the youth of Granite City.

$50 Million Sales Tax Loophole

(Illinois Retail Merchants Association)

A courageous legislature obsessed with a sense of justice and equipped with courage could find an added minimum of $50,000,000 for the state by closing the many loophole exemptions in the present Retailers' Occupation (sales tax) Act.

All it need do is to wipe out the exemptions for "occasional sales," "charities," "cookie sales," "hospital stores," "parishioner's church events" and on and on.

Unfair? Harmful?

There can be no special exemption hardship as sharp and penalizing as exemptions which

Grapes of Wrath Still Harvested

(Chapel Hill, N. Car., Weekly)

The film on the television newscast the other night showing farmers shooting their hogs and burying them rather than market them at unacceptable prices was a shocking thing to see—at least to us.

We've seen variations on the same theme for more than thirty years.

Back during the Depression of the Thirties it was farmers plowing under good crops and leaving them in the fields to rot, and driving hogs and cattle into pits to be slaughtered and consumed with lime.

Over the years, citrus growers have bulldozed their fruit groves, and mountaineers have sprayed the whole with kerosene.

The same thing has been done to mountains of potatoes to prevent them from being used for human or animal consumption.

Thousands of gallons of milk have been dumped from trucks onto highways and grain has been allowed to waste in the field.

We understand the theory of supply and demand and that the way to drive up pork prices is to withhold hogs from the market.

The farmer can't be faulted for refusing to sell his products unless he can realize a fair price.

And prime hogs, without a market, can be a heavy expense; hence, the lime pit.

Even recognizing the realities of supply and demand and after seeing it happen for more than thirty years, deliberate destruction of foodstuffs is still a thing we haven't been able to accept.

Something remains fundamentally wrong in a system that brings such a bitter harvest.

Practice Doesn't Make Perfect

(American Association for the Advancement of Science)

The commonly held belief that alcoholics metabolize alcohol (the "hard" ingredient in hard liquor) more rapidly than do non-alcoholics appears to be dispelled as a result of experiments conducted by Jack Mendelsohn of the National Institute of Mental Health.

Human male subjects, one a group of alcoholics and the other of non-alcoholics, drank ethyl alcohol, labelled with radioactive carbon, under carefully controlled conditions.

Breath samples were taken at regular intervals and analyzed for their carbon dioxide content.

One of the metabolic products of alcohol metabolism is carbon dioxide, CO<sub>2</sub>. The presence of the radioactive carbon permitted analysis of the CO<sub>2</sub> produced from alcohol in the presence of CO<sub>2</sub> from other sources.

Results of these breath analyses showed that there are no significant differences in the rates of metabolism of ethyl alcohol in alcoholics and non-alcoholic individuals after each had consumed a large dose of alcohol.

These findings do not settle the question with certainty, for it may be that alcoholics metabolize ethyl alcohol in a different way than do non-alcoholics.

But it is unlikely that any large quantities of new or already identified metabolic intermediates accumulate or are retained in alcoholics as compared with non-alcoholics.

Ice Age Wrench

A wrench-like tool made from a long bone of a mammoth may be the New World forerunner of the modern box-end wrench.

Plants affected by this radiation could have ultimately survived through their seeds and spores, which are more resistant generally to radiation effects than are animals.

Alton State Hospital Employees Stay on Job

Illinois State Employees Union members at Alton State Hospital voted Thursday and Friday against striking. Workers at Anna and Dixie also voted not to strike, but union members at the other 16 Illinois mental hospitals disobeyed a court injunction against a statewide strike. Peoria hospital employees returned to work today.

The Alton local has 425 members; there are 970 employees at the hospital. An Illinois Mental Health Department spokesman estimated that 2000 of 22,000 employees were off work Friday but said basic care of patients was not curtailed.

Political Participation

Hailed by Cong. Price

Endorsement of a "teacher-in-politics" philosophy was voiced by Cong. Melvin Price in a House statement this week.

Taking part in a National Education Association-sponsored nationwide effort to encourage political action by educators, he said, "teacher involvement in politics further crystallizes the growing phenomenon of participatory democracy in this country."

Price stressed this week again in a letter to the annual convention of the Illinois Federation of Teachers during the weekend.

Honored by the NEA for his "continued support" of "education legislation" and for his record which "demonstrates a dedication to improving the quality of American education," the Illinois Democrat observed, "I view this recognition by the teachers of the value the political process holds as a complement to those of us who work daily in the political arena for the betterment of American education."

Cong. and Mrs. Price attended an NEA banquet in Washington Friday evening honoring him and other legislators with records of support of education legislation.

GC Council Meets Tonight to Study Financial Picture

Granite City council's Finance Committee called a meeting of interested aldermen and other officials for 7:30 this evening to go over the city's financial picture with a team of experts from the state revenue department.

Alderman Paul Rutledge, chairman of the committee, said his group has been in session with the team, headed by Gene Bergdorf, and that a detailed outline of all possible sources of income for the city will be reviewed.

The chairman announced at last week's council session that the city has barely enough money to last through May, and it is faced with delayed income from the 1967 tax collection which will not be available until August.

Council members called for a study to determine if it would be advisable to impose a 5% tax on all utilities' bills or if individual tax rates would provide added revenue next year.

The city through special improvements and a cutback in the general rate two years ago, as well as the city's special sales tax fund that once amounted to nearly a half million dollars. Payment for costly sewer breaks along 20th street and in the Nameoos area also were contributing factors.

Rutledge said the city has been advised it can levy a tax to cover the costs of lawsuits dating back for five years and also can build up the working cash fund—now at $183,000—to $750,000 with an added tax.

The city also has about a mill levy for the sanitation department, but to meet the cost of the police department, whose members are seeking $150 monthly pay increases, a referendum would be needed.

The chairman pointed out that by a two-thirds vote of the council, the tax for maintenance of sewers could be increased and could be used for special improvements or for replacement of pumps in sewer lift stations. The rate could go as high as 16 cents. The year the sewer maintenance rate is 1.56 cent.

The city presently has a 5.79-cent rate for streets, and with a three-fourths favorable vote of the council, the rate could go up to 10 cents.

On the other hand, the chairman stressed, the fire protection rate which was 16 cents last year has dropped to 10 cents because of new legislation, and the city will be losing revenue amounting to $70,000.

Another possible source is a special levy which the council can impose to cover the cost of liability insurance. In the past, the city has paid such costs from its general funds.

Rutledge expressed hope the legislature will restore the city's general tax rate of 25 cents for next year. "It is a possibility we may be able to overcome the restrictions of the Hodge-Butler Act," he added.

Woman's Purse Found, Owner Not Located

A woman's black purse containing a $5 bill and papers was taken to the Granite City police station by William Cottrell, 1808 Poplar street, at 5:15 p.m. Sunday. He said his children found it in a field near the old police firing range.

Papers in the purse indicated that the owner is Billy E. Stephens, 1809 Grand avenue, but no one by that name resides at the address and the owner was not located, police said.

Mayor Partney Reports on City Finances

The city's financial problems are reviewed today by Mayor Partney in his monthly report to the citizens of Granite City. He is urging council members to limit special improvements for the new fiscal year, despite the 1968 election year.

Text of the mayor's report follows: "The mayor of a city used to be the smiling fellow who appeared at dedications and ceremonial dinners. There was a time when the mayor could spend a lazy summer day at the ballpark without wondering if his city might suddenly erupt."

"The mayor of today is called upon to be an administrator, mediator, conciliator, architect, economist, wooer of industry and seeker of friends. The mayor of today shoulders enormous responsibilities—some of it is tangible and some is intangible. He is the face of the city's residents, who regard the mayor as the visible authority for all socio-economic ills."

"There is an increased responsibility without increased city finances."

"Begar of Federal Funds" "The mayor of today is being turned into a traveling beggar for federal funds, as our cities of today are unable financially to cope with all these problems."

"First, Uncle Sam has the privilege of reaching in and taking all the tax money the national economy can stand through payroll and corporate taxes and other levies. Then, comes the state taxes, and actually the school and other taxing bodies have preference over city taxes. So we are in a bad situation insofar as being able to do all the increased services that are required."

"For our fiscal year, May 1, 1966, through April 30, 1967, our budget was $2,454,413. Our general tax levy on all the real and personal property within the corporate limits amounted to $1,000,689 for the operation of the city of Granite City. I found it necessary to veto sections of this budget for the fiscal year 1966-67, amounting to $175,320."

"The aldermen, by a majority vote, overrode the veto on 'special improvements' and $75,903 was spent for this purpose. Of this amount, $55,345 should have come from state motor fuel tax funds rather than from the city's general fund."

"Current Budget, Income" "Beginning May 1, 1967, through April 30, 1968, our budget is $2,771,723. Our general tax levy on all real and personal property within the corporate limits amounted to $1,120,424 for the operation of the city of Granite City. I, again, used the powers of the mayor's office to veto $108,650 of this budget."

"However, it is far better to be able to operate a city on the amount received by present taxation. The adoption of new taxes is not a step that makes city officials the most popular individuals."

"It has always been my belief that we should operate as close to our income as possible and in the interest of the taxpayer, and that the reduction of an appropriation is rather for the taxpayer's benefit in its tendency to lessen the burden of taxation."

"We all know that in municipal government today, it is impossible to operate a city on the amount received by present taxation. The adoption of new taxes is not a step that makes city officials the most popular individuals."

GCBS Band Tag Days Thursday to Saturday

Plans for the annual spring tour of the Granite City High School band April 29 to May 3 and the group's yearly "Tag Days" event, to be held this Thursday, Friday and Saturday, will be the primary topics at 8 p.m. tomorrow at a meeting of the GCBS Band Parents Association.

Earl McMillan, association president, today urged that all parents of students intending to make the tour, which this year will take band members to New Orleans, La., attend Tuesday's meeting.

Details of the proposed itinerary and requirements of participating students will be explained by Louis E. Meek, band director. Persons wishing to act as chaperones on the trip must be present tomorrow evening.

Also to be outlined are plans for the three-day fund-raising drive. Proceeds help finance the musicians' out-of-state trip each spring.

Working in pairs or small groups, the band students will solicit funds from local residents at numerous locations within the community. In addition to posts throughout the downtown business district and suburban shopping centers, several youths will station themselves at entrances to local plants.

Supervising campaign activities will be members of the association, McMillan said. Adults will assist at the high school collection point and in transporting band members to different locations.

Mrs. LeRoy Jung, who is coordinating the drive again this year, said today that parents willing to furnish Tag Days transportation are being asked to volunteer their services and attend Tuesday's meeting in the band room annex in order to see your government in action.

"I extend my welcome to all citizens to attend council meetings on the first, third, and fourth Mondays of each month to see your government in action."

A 1963 graduate of Granite City high school, she is employed at the American Red Cross Blood Center, 49th street and Washington avenue, St. Louis. Plans are complete for a "OST family day" to be held at the General Steel Industries Castings Division for employees and their families Sunday, April 21, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

President Thomas R. Remington said the purpose is to give employees and their families an opportunity to become better acquainted with their company, its products and the changes and progress of which they have been a part.

Parking will be available in the main lots at the plant, 1417 State street. Shoes comfortable for walking are to be worn.
